

The AGCSA Awards Two Turfgrass Scholarships for 2007

Brennan Booker is a senior and studies Agronomy and golf and sports turf management at Mississippi State University. Brennan has worked at Falcon Ridge and MSU Golf Courses, and he has interned at Bear Trace at Chickasaw and FarmLinks Golf Courses. Brennan is a member of the turf club at MS State and a student member of the Mississippi Turf Association, the LMGCS and the GCSAA. Brennan says he is “ready to be a leader on a crew of workers.” He comes highly recommended by Dr. Barry Stewart at Mississippi State who speaks of his strong work ethic.

Mark Doroh is a Senior at Auburn University who is studying Agronomy & Soils (Turfgrass Management). Mark participates in Ag Ambassadors, the Agronomy Club and is in the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and also the Student Alumni Association. He has golf course experience at Farmlinks, Robert Trent Jones Grand National Course and Turtle Point Yacht and Country Club. He is originally from Florence, Alabama. Mark has also received the Bayer Environmental Science Scholarship, the R.Y. Bailey Endowed Scholarship and was an Auburn Presidential Scholar in 2004. We were fortunate that Mark was able to attend our annual meeting and also help out at the ATA Conference the following day as an Ag Ambassador! Mark is considering graduate school next year.

Congratulations to both our scholarship recipients and best of luck in future endeavors!
